

Middle Adulthood Discussion Questions
Human Development

There are many positives about being in the middle adult category. However, it can be one of the times of greatest stress. Some psychologists believe this stress helps lead some people to the typical “Mid-Life Crisis.”

Middle Adults often have to adjust to aging children, and their own aging parents.

Discuss the following:

How do you cause your parent/guardian stress?

